✠ THE 23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME ✠

"We're not our hearts burning while he spoke to us on the way and opened the scriptures to us?"

Luke 24: 13-15

Cathedral's Parish Retreat

Saturday, September 30 | 9:00 am – 12:00 pm | Richmond Hill

All Cathedral parishioners are invited to a morning of prayer and discussion. Our Catholic tradition is about ongoing change, transformation, and conversion. God has called us to be holy, to be our best selves...and this requires constant change. Adult Faith Formation - in all its forms - is one of the key ways we have to this ongoing conversion and to deepen our relationship with Jesus. Faith Formation is much more than knowledge.

Come to the Cathedral Parish Retreat...and live the words of the disciples...“We’re not our heart burning?”

"Let the children come to me, do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these." Mark 10: 14
When children come to know God and can be given time to reflect on the good gifts of His creation, they understand that the presence of God is always with them. We must give our children the opportunity to respond to God's invitation to know Him through worship and participation in the sacraments.

Medical Volunteers Needed

East End Pregnancy Center at 804-564-5852

As God is moving at East End Pregnancy Center we have seen the need to provide more accurate and impactful pregnancy testing by using ultrasound technology. In order to be able to utilize this technology we must first have a medical director to approve our ultrasounds and a nurse manager to perform the ultrasounds and oversee volunteer nurses. If you are able to volunteer your time in either position, please contact Rachael Newmister or Ann Campbell at East End Pregnancy Center at 804-564-5852 or eastendpregnancy@gmail.com. Thank you for helping us to become a medical clinic which will use technology to help women see the beauty of life that God created!

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel reading is taken from a chapter of Matthew's Gospel, which is sometimes called the "discourse on the Church" or the "church order" discourse. In this part of Matthew's Gospel, Jesus speaks more directly about matters of Church discipline and order. In today's reading we find one of only three instances in which Jesus uses the word church in Matthew's Gospel. In Matthew's record of Jesus' teaching, we can hear echoes of the kinds of issues faced by the early Christian community.

In the first part of the "discourse on the Church" (Matthew 18:1-14), Matthew addresses the Christian community's concerns about rank. Jesus responds to the disciples' question about who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. Jesus indicates that those who wish to enter the kingdom of heaven must be like children, and he cautions those leaders who might lead these "little ones" astray. He also responds with the parable of the lost sheep, indicating how God will seek out and bring back those "little ones" who have strayed.

In today's Gospel reading, Matthew 18:15-20, Jesus addresses a common occurrence in the Christian community: a dispute between two members of the Church. Jesus outlines a procedure for settling such matters fairly. The victim should privately address the offender and attempt to resolve the dispute without outside involvement. If that fails, then the victim should bring two or three witnesses and confront the offender again. If the dispute is still unresolved, the matter should be brought to the attention of the entire community. If the offender refuses to adhere to the reparations prescribed by the community, then Jesus suggests that the offender may be expelled from the Church.

Jesus does not discourage disagreement within the community of the Church; he acknowledges the reality of conflict and error and offers his disciples a means for addressing such matters. It is in the conclusion to this teaching that the message of hope is found: Jesus is present with the community and will guide the community in its relations. If decisions are taken in prayer, then the community can be assured of God's assistance.
