NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Christ the Bread of Life

"I am the bread that came down from heaven." – John 6: 51

John's Gospel gives us a lengthy Bread of Life Discourse. Jesus feeds people by revealing the Father to them in word and deed. What does it mean for Catholic Christians to encounter Christ in the celebration of the Eucharist? In the Eucharist we discover our true identity as Christians because we come to realize to whom we really belong. This means that as Catholic Christians we are a Eucharistic people. Every time we celebrate the Eucharist, we tell the story of God's saving love for His people.

CHILDREN'S, YOUTH AND ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Children's Faith Formation Corner

Today's Gospel focuses our attention on our faith in Jesus' presence in the Eucharist. Jesus is the bread of life. He gives us his Body and Blood as bread so that we may have eternal life. When we receive the Body and Blood of Jesus in the Eucharist, our lives begin to reflect the reality that our communion with Jesus prepares in us. Our Eucharist leads us to live as people of the promise, confident that we will one day share the fullness of life with God.

As you gather as a family, talk about our hope that one day we will share eternal life with God in heaven. This hope can transform the way we live our daily lives, calling us to be people of hope and expectation.

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

On this Sunday, we continue to read from the "Bread of Life discourse" found in the sixth chapter of John's Gospel. Recall that we have been reading from this chapter for the past two weeks and will continue to read from it for another two. Last week, the crowd asked for a sign that would show that Jesus came from God. Jesus replied by saying that he is the sign and the bread of life sent by God. At this point, our Lectionary omits six verses in which Jesus predicts the unbelief of the crowd and further develops his connection with God the Father. In these verses, Jesus says that he was sent by God to do the Father's will. Jesus promises that those who look upon the Son with faith will find eternal life. Some of these themes are repeated in today's Gospel reading.

Today's Gospel begins with a report that the Jews complained about Jesus' claims regarding His identity. They knew His family, and they knew He was the son of Joseph. They could not comprehend what Jesus meant when he said that He came down from heaven. Jesus responds to the complaints by saying that only those who are chosen by God will recognize Him as the One that God sent. This is a recurring theme in John's Gospel, that God has chosen those who will have faith in Jesus.

In the verses that follow, Jesus talks more about his unity with the Father. He is the one who has seen the Father and, therefore, knows the Father. Those who listen to God will recognize that Jesus is the one sent from God. Those who believe will have eternal life. Jesus concludes with the central element of our Eucharistic theology. He promises that the bread of life will bring eternal life to those who partake of it, and he tells us that the bread of life will be his own flesh, given for the life of the world.

In today's reading, we hear Jesus say again, as he did in last week's Gospel, that he is the bread of life. We also hear Jesus add that he is the living bread. Both of these statements help us understand better the gift that Jesus gives us in the Eucharist. We celebrate this gift of Jesus each time we gather for Mass. We believe that receiving Jesus in the Eucharist will lead us to eternal life.
